Dear Maria,

"SLEEPING BEAUTY" PANTOMIME - DECEMBER 1990

We are now planning our next production which is the Pantomime "Sleeping Beauty" to be presented at the Kenya National Theatre during the early part of December 1990. It is directed by Jon Tarlton who was the director for "Robinson Crusoe" last year.

As you have either worked for us before or attended auditions, I am pleased to advise you that you have been Shortlisted for a part in the Pantomime. Will you please attend an audition with the director, Jon Tarlton, on Saturday morning the 6th of October 1990 at Greengates Kindergarten, Westlands, between 10.00 am and 1.00 pm (the earlier the better). There is to be an open public audition on Monday the 8th of October, also at Greengates Kindergarten, from 5.30 pm onwards, but you do not have to attend this if you have been able to make the first audition on Saturday the 6th.

Required are ten principal roles as follows; Wicked Fairy (male) this is a really good role with bags of acting. Good Fairy (female) another good role and on the funny side. The Knave is the chief comic role and male for choice. Mickle & Muckle two slap stick comic roles can be played by either sex, these are really good comic roles with lots to do and plenty of fun. Nurse TwoGood this is the Dame and must be male, a very good role, heavy involvement with the action, two big routines and of course the song sheet. The King (male) a generally comic role. The Queen (female) usually a double role with the King, young enough to be a mother. Princess Principal Girl must be female young and good looking, a very important role, a lively, fun person needs to sing and dance. Florizel Principal Boy (traditionally female) the typical Principal Boy part with lots of swagger. Three Fairies all for choice female but can double from chorus. Adult Chorus of at least ten and Childrens Chorus of at least ten.

Naturally everybody must be able to sing a bit and dance some simple routines.

We hope that you will be available for the show and look forward to seeing you at the first audition with Jon Tarlton on Saturday the 6th of October.

Yours sincerely
